Health Service Corps Loan Repayment Program HHS Announces New Application Cycle

Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Kathleen Sebelius has announced a new application cycle for the National Health Service Corps (NHSC) Loan Repayment Program. NHSC offers primary care medical, nursing, dental, and mental health clinicians up to $60,000 to repay student loans in exchange for 2 years of service at health care facilities in medically underserved areas. Clinicians may apply on the NHSC Loan Repayment website, where they will find tutorials and information to assist in the application process.

For Now, Reality of Tooth Decay Outweighs Concerns Over Sealant

Dental sealants can reduce tooth decay in children by more than 70%. Although highly effective, sealants pose concerns. They are made with bisphenol A (BPA), a controversial and ubiquitous synthetic chemical that in low doses has been associated with changes in behavior, prostate and urinary tract development, and early onset of puberty. The American Dental Association says there's no basis for health concerns relative to BPA exposure from any dental material, but BPA researcher Fred vom Saal calls lack of information about the different sealants a "big problem." Tooth decay is a serious medical condition, and for some children, sealants are necessary. See article. Source: Chicago Tribune, Dec. 14, 2010

Oral Health Care and Pregnancy Outcomes American Journal of Public Health Publishes Study

The study "An Examination of Periodontal Treatment, Dental Care and Pregnancy Outcomes in an Insured Population" has been published online by the American Journal of Public Health. The study found that women who received preventive dental care had fewer birth complications than women who received no treatment. The study was conducted by Columbia University College of Dental Medicine and the Mailman School of Public Health with Aetna Dental. Source: Insurance News Net, Dec. 8, 2010
